

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF PHARMACEUTICAL EDUCATION AND RESEARCH, RAEBARELI

A Report on
"Training Programme in Animal Handling and Drug Administration"

Date: 2nd to 6th May, 2024

Time and Duration: 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM

Program Theme/Title: Training Programme in Animal Handling and Drug Administration

Speakers: Dr. Jayavelu Kumaravelu, CSIR-CDRI, Lucknow
Prof. Suhel Parvez, Jamia Hamdard, Delhi
Dr. Syed Ziaur Rahman, Dept. of Pharmacology, AMU
Dr. V.P. Sharma, CSIR-IITR, Lucknow

Objective: The objective of the training programme was to ensure that all personnel involved in the study and management of laboratory animals are skilled in performing their tasks in a manner that promotes animal welfare, meets regulatory requirements and supports the validity and reliability of scientific research.

Student Participants: 41

Faculty Participants: 15

Expenditure Amount: 70,000

Benefit Learning: Laboratory Animal Handling, Regulatory Guidelines, Hands on training Experience with Laboratory Animals

Organizing Secretary:
Dr. Saba Naqvi, Animal Facility Co-ordinator

Description:

The Central Animal facility of National Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research, Raebareli organized a 5 day "Training programme in Laboratory Animal Handling and Drug Administration". On the inaugural day, Dr. Saba Naqvi (Organizing secretary) welcomed all the participants. A no. of prominent speakers like Dr. Kumaravelu J. (CDRI, Lucknow), Prof. Suhel Parvez (Jamia Hamdard, Delhi), Dr. Syed Ziaur Rehman (AMU, Aligarh) and Prof. V.P. Sharma (IITR, Lucknow) along with lectures from the faculty of Pharmacology & Toxicology and Pharmaceutics helped the participants to get well versed with different regulatory guidelines that needs to be considered while performing and designing the laboratory animal studies. Also, all the participants visited the animal facility of NIPER-Raebareli and then, all the participants were provided the hands-on training on laboratory animals related to their handling, restraining, different dosage routes, etc. The training programme concluded with the Certificate distribution to all the participants.

Training Programme in Animal Handling and Drug Administration

Eligibility:
Graduate/ Post Graduate/ PhD Students/
Faculty/Industry Professional

Registration Fee (INR)
Govt. Affiliation:	Rs. 6000/-
Private Affiliation:	Rs. 8,000/-
Industry Professionals:	Rs. 12,000/-

Important Dates
Last date of Registration: 30th April, 2024

Link for Registration & Online Payment
<https://forms.gle/PQJVY2XipTaY5Za26>

Chairperson
Prof. Shubhini A. Saraf
Director, NIPER Raebareli

2nd to 6th May 2024

Maximum
Seats
25

Venue:
Central Animal Facility, NIPER-Raebareli
(Transit Campus), Lucknow

Highlights:

- National and International Regulations, Ethics and Animal Welfare
- Selection of Animal model (Rodents and Rabbit)
- Biology and Husbandry of Laboratory Mice and Rats
- Animal Experiment Designing
- 3R concept in Animal Experimentation
- Hands on training in Handling, Restraining, Identification and Dosing Methods
- Lecture by Experts

Organising Secretary: Dr. Saba Naqvi
Expert Trainer: Dr. Lakshay Mahajan (Veterinarian)

For any query, contact at :- 7006715350 (mob.) & cat@niperrbl.ac.in

Glimpses of the active participation of students in the training programme organized by Central Animal facility of NIPER Raebareli

